COUNCIL MEETS

The Sewerage Will Probably Be Accepted This Evening.

Sub-Contractors Have Agreed Among Themselves as to Estimates.

The city council meets tonight in called session, to put the final touches on the sewerage question. It is probable that the sewerage will be accepted tonight. Last night the resolution to accept it was defeated by one vote, but Councilman Robertson was not present and will probably vote to receive it, which will give the requisite eight votes.

It is understood that the contractors have agreed among themselves as to the estimates that are to be made out in order that they may collect the money on the sewerage from the property owners.

There are two sub-contractors, Mr.
Ed D. Hannan and Wilcox & Halloran, and it was thought, as they had failed to agree, that two or perhaps three separate estimates would have to be made out against each property owner, which would mean simply a sub-division of the total amount to suit the proportion due each contractor. It would occasion a great deal of annoyance, according to Mayor Lang's idea, and he declared last night that he would have as few estimates as possible.

It is understood, however, that the sub-contractors have agreed among themselves and that there will be no trouble on this score.

RAILROAD NOTES.

Superintendent Washington is rushing the work on the depot, and if bad weather doesn't interfere, the new edifice will soon be ready for the trains.

The Union depot shed has not yet been rolled to the west end of the building, as most of the time and trouble is consumed in arranging for the preliminaries. It will be short work after the rolling proper begins.

Engineer Walter Sheppard will soon be at work again, the accident in which he was struck by a mail pouch not being as serious as rumor would make it.

Store Keeper Palmer, who is to succeed Mr. Chas. Morris, the new chief clerk, will arrive today and take his new place.

TO CURE A COLO IN ONE DAY
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets.
All druggists refund the money if it

DIED TODAY

Vice President Hobart Finally
Succumbs to His Late Severe Illness.

A NATION'S GREAT LOSS

Closing of a Career Which Was Alike an Honor to the Country and Dead.

BRIEF BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

PATTERSON, N. J., Nov. 21.—Vice President Garret A. Hobart died at 8:30 o'clock this morning at his residence in this city.

Mr. Hobart's condition began to change for the worse yesterday evening. His heretofore wonderful vitality seemed to be deserting him. The physician who has been at his bedside for the past two weeks administered strengthening medicines but they seemed to have no effect. At 10 last night the vice president sank into a deep sleep but at midnight woke up and spoke to Mrs. Hobart, who was kneeling at his bedside. Then Mr.
Hobart became unconscious and remained in a comatose state the rest of the night.

Mrs. Hobart, the wife, and son, Garrett, Jr., Dr. Newton and wife and Alice Wardell, a nurse, were with the patient when he died. Mrs. Hobart is bearing up well under the shock.
A heart affection was the cause of the vice president's death.

As soon as Mr. Hobart expired a message announcing his death was sent to President McKinley and Governor Voorhees, of New Jersey.

No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—When the news of Vice President Hobart's death was received here immediate steps were taken to show the respect of the government to the memory of its distinguished dead. The white house was closed to visitors and all official flags lowered to half mast.
The secretary of state called at the white house as soon as he heard the news. Senator Fairbanks and ex-secretary Foster also called and expressed to the president sympathy for the loss of his colleague. Mr.
McKinley, who was most intimate with the Hobart family, broke down and gave way to heart-breaking sobs.

The law does not provide for a successor to a vice president who dies in office. The duties as president of the senate is filled by the chairman pro tempore and Senator Frye now holds this position.

BIOGRAPHICAL.

Garret A. Hobart's death closes an honored life and one which he largely made himself, though his stability of character and strong mind was an inheritance from his parents, the family being famous as teachers and preachers and the father a descendant of Scotch-Irish ancestry and the mother of French Burgundy blood. His life began in the town of Long Branch, N. J., June 3, 1844, where at the time his father was a humble school teacher, country store keeper and farmer. In early boyhood the son had to make his own living and win his schooling, but the spirit which afterwards made him a success was then within him and he grew to manhood with good mind and some competency.

In his early school days young Hobart developed a strong mind and the district schools were soon too slow for him. At the age of 16 he entered Rutgers' college and had soon graduated with honors and taken up the profession of his father, school teaching. He subsequently studied law and then his noted career began in earnest. After being admitted to the bar Mr. Hobart got into politics and in 1871 was chosen city councillor of Patterson, where he had been living several years. He made a creditable counselor and in 1872 was elected to the state assembly and in 1874 was elected speaker of that body. He declined a third term and in 1876 was elected to the senate and was chosen president thereof. His career as a senator gave him the reputation which made his life so conspicuous in later days.

In 1876 Mr. Hobart entered national politics and became a delegate at large for Blaine. Then began the talk for him as a political leader which finally culminated in his nomination at St. Louis as vice president and his election to this high office.

Throughout his life Mr. Hobart was frugal and by shrewd investments accumulated handsome property. He was very enterprising and lent effectual encouragement to many enterprises which added greatly to the growth and prosperity of Patterson and to his financial standing.

HOT TRAIL

Aguinaldo Again Making for the North With Americans In Close Pursuit.

THE OREGON'S MESSAGE

Gen. Lawton and Wheaton Unite Their Forces and Will Soon Be Heard From.

THE TRANSVAAL WAR DULL

MANILA, Nov. 21.—The gunboat Helena, which arrived today with the crew of the cruiser Charleston, reports that while passing the battleship Oregon, in the Gulf of Lingayen, the latter signaled that Aguinaldo was making for the north with twelve officials and that a troop of cavalry was in close pursuit.

The Oregon also signaled that Generals Wheaton and Lawton had confirmed.

All the Charleston's men are well.
The Helena was storm bound five days at Camiguin.

General Schwan sets considerable store by the Oregon's advice concerning Aguinaldo's position. It is believed quite likely the cavalry should be close behind him, if it doesn't already hold him a prisoner.

The Fair's Fall.

ESTOURET, Natal, Nov. 21.— Details of a fight reported to have taken place near Ladysmith November 15 has been received. The Boers to the north of the town began a forward movement, but were checked by the British with infantry fire and Maxims. The British then attacked the Boer flank and forced a retreatment.
The Boer's loss is still placed at 500 and 300 killed.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—Reports from Herschel, Cape Colony, say that natives from a party of Boers left in charge of their camp while they went in a raiding party disappeared with the Boers' horses and all the equipment they could carry.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—Latest news from Ladysmith, the 16th, says on that day there was no bombardment of any severity. The Boers are maintaining close investment, but their operations are impeded by the heavy weather. No mention is made of the big battle reported yesterday.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

Officers Elected Last Night for the Ensuing Year.

Chicago, Paducah and St. Louis Railroad May Be Induced to Enter Paducah.

The directors of the Commercial club met last night and re-elected Mr. W. F. Paxton president, Mr. A.
N. Clark vice president and Mr. R. B.
Phillips treasurer. Secretary Dains is not elected, but appointed indefinitely.

The club then held a meeting, and the most important action taken was that a committee was appointed to notify the Chicago, Paducah and St. Louis railroad which will enter Metropolis from Marion, Ill., that Paducah will do everything in its power to get the road to enter Paducah. Every inducement possible will be offered the road, and it is hoped that the Commercial club will be successful in getting the road.

SPENT IT ALL.

Officer Orr last evening went to the St. Nicholas hotel and took charge of Luther Farmer, who is wanted by his father W. J. Farmer, of Martin, Tenn. A telegram was received to look out for him. He had left home with two or three companions, and nearly $200. When the officer arrested him he had but five dollars left. It seems he had been taking the other boys around to Memphis, Jackson and other places, and in this way had spent his money. His father will arrive for him this afternoon.

NO DECISION.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 21.—The vote of this county has not yet been certified to. The wrangle over the matter continues.

Judge Sanders is this afternoon hearing evidence with a view to issuing warrants for perjury against several witnesses in the immorality case detailed in the police court this morning.

A GOOD ORDINANCE.

Councilman Robertson Comes Out for Non-Spitting Measure.

Councilman J. D. Robertson came out last night for an anti-spitting ordinance, but he was defeated by a majority of the council, which indicates that they are all spitters.
Capt. Fowler said the reason he voted against it was because the ladies, whose dresses Dr. Robertson claimed were bedraggled and ruined by the copious gobs of tobacco and spices of juice, found everywhere, made their dresses too long. This is because Capt. Fowler is a little behind the times, however, and has not seen the atrocious short skirts now worn by the ladies on a rainy day or when they see a cloud coming up.

Councilman Robertson's suggestion is a good one, however, and such sanitary measures are enforced in all the larger cities. In Paducah the street cars, theaters and concert houses, as well as depots and other public places, are liberally bespattered with the juice of the plant, which is not only a menace to the health of the people compelled to come in contact with its contaminating effect, but is very unsightly to the eye, and very offensive to people of refinement as well.

Other things are classed as nuisances under the law that are far less so than the promiscuous and persistent expectoration of coarse and unclean-ly men where people of refinement are compelled to go. It is hoped that some one else will take up the matter, last night being Dr. Robertson's last meeting as a councilman.

TO WIND UP.

Former Supt. Wm. Erler Will Settle Up His Affairs Here.

Mr. William Erler, superintendent of the sewerage system while it was under way, arrived this morning from Terre Haute to wind up his business here.

He was a sub-contractor under Wilcox & Halloran, but was not connected with the city in any way.

It is understood that Wilcox & Halloran will look to him for the $2,500 paid the city on a compromise last night. Under his contract with Wilcox & Halloran it is claimed he was expected to comply with the requirements of the original contract and keep the streets in repair, but it is understood that Mr. Erler will decline to pay the amount to Wilcox & Halloran. The city is already out of it, having accepted the $2,500 from Wilcox & Halloran.

If there is any fight now, it will be between Wilcox & Halloran and Mr.
Erler.

A NEW AND IMPROVED SYSTEM OF CARPET MAKING.

We have introduced in the work room of our carpet department a new system of making bordered carpets, whereby the turn under around the border that detracts so materially from the appearance of a carpet, is done away with. The seams of our carpets are made in such a manner as to be almost entirely invisible when the work is laid. These points are worthy of your consideration, as they add greatly to the appearance of a carpet.

Remember, this is the only place in the city where you can get such work.

Our Immense Stock of New Carpets and Rugs

- Extra good seven-eighths hemp carpet for 10c yard.
- Pretty colors and patterns in yard-wide granite—the best cheap carpet made—for 25c yard.
- Eight pieces of good quality ingrain carpets—our quarter-wool—bright patterns, for 35c yard.
- Four pieces strictly all-wool 50c ingrain carpets to close out for 40c yard.
- New Ingrains in Tapestry, Velvet, Moquette and Axminster Carpets.
- Good quality tapestry Brussels for 40c yard.
- Wilton velvet only 75c yard.
- Handsome moquettes only 75c yrd.
- Harford Axminster $1.35 yrd.
- Good wearing Fynna door mats, 18x36 inches, 69c.
- Smyrna rugs, 30x51 inches in size, for 98 cents.
- Handsome Moquette rugs, regular large sizes, for $2.39 and $3.45.
- New line of fine fur rugs in solid black and white; also combinations of gray, black, brown and white furs from $1.75 to $5.00.
- Smyrna druggets, 7x10 1/2 feet to 9x12 feet in size, handsome red, blue or green color combinations, ranging in price from $7.50 to $35.

We are Closing Out a Cheap Line of Mattings.

BOBINET RUFFLED CURTAINS.

The Swell Window Drapery—Durable, Artistic, Inexpensive.

All the new styles here from 98c to $3.95 a pair. Handsome Point d'Esprit curtains $3 to $5.95 a pair. Houston point lace curtains—in white or ecru, beautiful scroll designs—suitable for most any room, $5.50 a pair.

WINDOW SHADES AND CURTAIN FIXTURES

Nice felt window shades, 3 to 6 ft. long, spring roller, 15c. Good 6-foot shades, for 20 cents. Fine shades with order, any style or size, oak and mahogany curtain poles and fixtures, 20 cents. Small white curtain poles, silver trimmings, 25 cents. The new double Parisian curtain rods, for 35 cents.

PORTIERES, OUT DRAPERIES.

Arranged by an artistic decorator to beautify your room.

SPECIAL—A dozen different patterns in fine chenille portieres, regular price $4.50 to $10. This week at $3.00 on the dollar.

Tapestry portieres, 3 1/2 yards long, heavy fringe; red, blue and green tones, $2.50 a pair.

Roman strips draperies—the latest thing—also suitable for stylish pillows, 48 inches wide, for 75 cents yard.

India seats in oak and mahogany, $1.25.

TUESDAY, NOV. 21, 1899

The senate will fill the vacancy in the vice presidency caused by the death of Mr. Hobart. The mantle will, it is generally agreed, fall upon Senator Frye, one of the leaders in that body.

That astronomer who is known by the name of See has a very appropriate name if he really can see. He is the gazer who, by the way, said the falling star engagement would not appear until next November. And he seems right. See.

Two weeks ago today Mr. W. S. Taylor was chosen governor of the state. This fact was known to the people generally that same night, but it has just begun to dawn upon the minds of some of the so-called Democrats of the Goebel stripe.

Vice President Hobart is dead. This morning early his soul took its flight. A worthy son and honored man is among the great majority. The country mourns the demise of the second in standing of its executive head. Peace to his ashes.

Many meetings were held throughout the state yesterday to protest against the threat of the Goebels to seat their boss whether elected or not. The roasting of the gang received was warm enough to have taken their hide off. The people expressed themselves in terms not to be misunderstood.

The Goebels have now turned their attention and hopes to the state canvassing board. This is their last straw and if the board is compelled to do its honest duty—and of course it dare not do anything else—this last hope will vanish as have all others. The cause of the Kenton king is dead and so is the king. Long sleep both.

When the vote of Louisville is certified it will be given to Gen. Taylor, or the certificate will be made in the night and there will be two men absent from the metropolis the next day. This may prevent an outraged community from meeting justice to two or more thieves of the basest sort—thieves of the ballot—but it will not long delay the punishment.

The Hickman Courier says: "We want the man to be governor who has been elected by a plurality of the votes." That is the law, and the law should prevail always. The question which has been raised is who got the plurality of the votes? The evidence is in favor of Gen. Taylor, as you no doubt well know, and the question is, are you not for the gentleman having the certificate of election? If you are, say so.

The new council won't err much if it from the start recognizes that it is not the tail of the city government, but the body, and therefore should wage and not be waged. That the tail will assert itself is not to be doubted, but then it was made to be sat upon and this should be the case very often if not altogether. The Sun sounds this warning with every consideration especially as to the welfare of the city and the credit of the city fathers.

How thankful the people of Kentucky should be that Woodson, a member of the state canvassing board. He has said in an interview that the board would certainly issue a certificate of election to Goebel, which means that is what he would do if a member of the body. The Sun reiterates how thankful the people should be that Woodson is only a supposed leader and not really one.

The Louisville Dispatch uncovers the game of the Goebels now in their persistent efforts to impose the public with the idea that the Republicans had stolen the state. The Dispatch says: "It is plain that the purpose of this misrepresentation is to arouse the prejudice of the country people, and to secure their support for whatever resort to force and fraud may be necessary to make Goebel governor." But it won't work. The people are not fools.

The Sun believes in the city's being fair to all. Mr. Jas. McKinley, the efficient hospital steward, has been virtually defeated for re-election, it is generally understood. Mrs. Birchett being the choice of the council. Mr. McKinley has asked the council to reimburse him for fences and other property he will have to leave behind him when he steps out. He shows by the bills that he personally paid the money for the material and work, but asks only to be reimbursed for the material, which will be left behind, and is worth just as much to the city as if it had never benefited Mr. McKinley at all. It is nothing but right that he should be allowed what he asks, as the city has lost nothing, and what he asks is reasonable and less than the worth of the material.

REPEAL THE GOEBEL LAW.

"There is one thing forever settled by the recent election and that is that the Goebel law should be repealed at once," says the Louisville Dispatch, which pointedly adds: "A law which turns over the election machinery to a number of partisan commissioners, appointed for the purpose of electing a specific man or ticket, is in principle very bad. It has taken the power of conducting elections away from the people and centralized it in a commission that by its very nature is partisan. The judges that sit on the commission are three partisan adherents. Any law providing for such a state of affairs is bad in principle. In addition to this the Goebel law has demonstrated that it is very bad in practice. Almost every sort of unfair trick that could be conceived was worked by the various election commissions. In all parts of the state there was dishonesty and fraud and there is evidence that in most cases the election commissioners were not unaware that the frauds would be committed. Since the election the confusion has been something awful. Returns have been jumbled up and deficiently made out. There has been a more general display of inefficiency than ever known. The Goebel law is a failure; it has failed to elect its creator, and it has failed to give a satisfactory election in any particular. The first act of the next legislature should be the repeal of this un-American, un-democratic statute."

NEWS NOTES.

The report from the Birmingham district as to the pig iron market shows that there has been no falling off in the demand and that the furnaces are selling more than they can manufacture. The order books of the various companies are filled for the first half of 1900 and orders are now going down for delivery the latter half of the year.

The janitor of a flat building in Chicago shot and killed one burglar and wounded another.

President McKinley and General Henderson, the next speaker, desire to have the financial bill passed during the first week of the session of the house.

A man and his wife were killed by a train near Meridian, Miss. Assistant Secretary of State Ade was badly hurt by a fall from his bicycle at Washington.

The First Tennessee regiment will be mustered out at San Francisco next Thursday.

Over eighty female students at the North Carolina State Normal and Industrial college are ill of typhoid fever. Two have died.

Secretary Long says the report that he will resign from the cabinet is unfounded.

Leonard B. Imboden, formerly of Fort Worth, Texas, who was found guilty of conducting a wildcat bank at Kansas City, has been sentenced to ten years' imprisonment.

Ten ships were wrecked in Magellan straits and it is feared the crews were devoured by cannibals.

The report of Treasurer Roberts points out that the national banks hold sufficient bonds to permit an increase of the money in circulation to a point far beyond the necessities of the situation, and that the banks are deterred by the high price of bonds and the small profits from the issue of notes.

The revolutionary movement in Colombia is now reported to be widespread. Because of the suspension of inland transportation ships can not obtain cargo. The government is recruiting the army by impressment. Commercial houses are subjected to forced laws. Foreign exchange is 800.

HANDSOME GOBLER.

Mr. August Theuring, of the Hank Bros & Jones Hardware company, and who recently made a most artistic representation of the battleship Maine, now has a turkey gobbler made of various articles sold in the store. It is also a credit to Mr. Theuring's artistic ability.

WILL FIGHT FRIDAY.

Thos. Minton, of Cincinnati, is here to box fifteen rounds with Jerome Smith, Paducah's Friday night, at the Athletic club Friday night. They fought last winter and Minton won, but since then Smith has greatly improved, and will put up a good fight.

GETS A BETTER JOB.

Mr. Wm. Kelday, the well known Louisville insurance man who often comes to Paducah, and who has been with the Hamburg-Bremen company, has been made agent for the Commercial Union, with headquarters in Louisville.

WOMAN'S NIGHTMARE.

She Shudders When She Realizes the Danger and Pain of Child-bearing. There is so much suffering and danger in store for the young mother, that her happy anticipation soon gives way to a feeling of dread at the thought of the pain which she must undergo. This constant fear so preys upon the mind of many women that it fills them with terror and makes baby's coming a source of the greatest anxiety and dread. All the suffering and danger of the ordeal can be avoided by the use of "Mother's Friend," which prepares the body for this important event. It relieves "morning sickness," and many other unpleasant conditions which exist during this time. Thousands of women praise "Mother's Friend" for bringing them safely through the most critical period of their lives. Every woman should send her name and address to the Bradford Regulator Co., Atlanta, Georgia, and receive free, valuable information on the subject.

Observationsat Random.

The street roller, which the Democrats have tried to burn, drown and blow up—but to no purpose, has disappeared from view for lot these many days. It was used to mash the mud on the streets until recently, but suddenly vanished and people have begun to ask about it. For their benefit it may be stated that the shed built for the roller hasn't fallen down, and obscured it, and thus deprived it of a place of refuge, neither has it fallen into any of the holes in the streets. It is standing on Jefferson street, some where below Broadway, taking a rest. It is getting covered with rust, and will be a sight, to say the least when it is needed again. It is there, however, and those who desire to see it again may call before it is completely disintegrated by the elements.

The gravel that was put on Broadway is being hauled away again—as mud. There were several hundred wagon loads of it taken from the streets yesterday. It seemed to those who passed along Broadway and saw the huge piles of sand and mud heaped on the sides of the street by the chain gang. This may be slightly in excess of the truth, but not much. There was at least as many loads of dirt as there were of original gravel. One man remarked: "Costs 75 cents to put it on and 75 to take it off."

Attorney Will H. Farley's friends are telling a good joke at his expense. As is well known he is a Republican in politics, and when the election commissioners were recently canvassing the returns, they found in the stubs one with Mr. Farley's name, and the words "ballot destroyed." It was then learned that the reason he had to use two ballots was that he had been out in the country all day doing some work, and had come in to vote.

He went back to the booth, after being handed his ballot, and there in his flurry and excitement stamped under the rooster, ignoring the log cabin. He did not discover his mistake until almost ready to hand it over to be deposited in the box. Then they had to give him another ballot, so he could vote his real sentiments.

A prominent lady is not such an enthusiastic attendant at one of the smaller churches as she was a few days ago. She concluded she ought to visit one of the mission churches "to encourage it along."

One Sunday she donned her plainest attire, left every ornament at home, and meekly betook herself to the little church.

Her advent caused any amount of whispered gossip, for it did not require long for the others of the congregation to recognize her as a visitor.

"Humph! she thinks she's great," somebody across the aisle said loud enough for her to hear.

The silk lining to her plain dress unfortunately rustled, and this evoked another remark from a woman behind her.

"I guess she's one of them society wimmin'—"

"Yes," somebody else interposed, "she's turned the silk dress inside out, but I heard it rustle."

Every time she moved and the silk rustled somebody else made some observation that was not calculated to put her at ease.

If she turned her head somebody commented on it, and finally she had to remain perfectly quiet and not move a muscle in order to exempt herself from further criticism.

She heaved a sigh of relief when services were over, and has since concluded that the church doesn't need any encouragement.

Dr. P. H. Stewart has been tried and condemned and the verdict has brought great sorrow to his heart. Before the game law expired, he was seen returning with gun and dog one day. He crept along very suspiciously, but declared that he had only been out to exercise his dog. He was arraigned before a court of well known gentlemen and tried.

No spoils were found on his person, but the prosecuting counsel pointed out that the law said "any one who kills or pursues with intent to kill," and the doctor was convicted of "pursuing with intent to kill," and sentenced to kill his dog and banish rooster.

He claims he will take an appeal, as the verdict was brought at the instance of the prosecutor, who is kept awake until nearly daylight by the howling of the doomed dog and the remainder of the time by the crowing of the rooster.

There is more traveling now than there was during the summer, when many people were going to visit their friends, or to the health resorts. Last night a whole coach load of people, going no where in particular and everywhere in general, left the union depot. There was such a rush as the ticket agent had not seen in many days.

THE REPUBLICAN STEAL.

Logan County News. The people laugh when they read in the Times and the Courier-Journal where the awful Republicans are preparing to steal the election. It was indeed criminal the way Judge Barr robbed and plundered Caruth and Hoertz in Louisville. You know Caruth and Hoertz removed eighty-seven Republican election officers on the eve of the election in Louisville and substituted Goebel's plant tools in their places. Don't you see how the Republicans are stealing the election? That is as plain as the nose on Cyrus's face, or the Taylor majority in Kentucky. Come, come, Mr. Waterson, you are making yourself ridiculous.

MEN CURED FREE.

A most successful remedy has been found for sexual weakness, such as impotency, varicocele, shrunken organs, nervous debility, lost manhood, night emissions, premature discharge and all other results of self-abuse or excesses. It cures any case of the difficulty never fails to restore the organs to full natural strength and vigor. The doctor who made this wonderful discovery wants to tell every man he knows about it. He will therefore send the receipt giving the various ingredients to be used so that all men at a trifling expense can cure themselves. He sends the receipt free, and all the reader need do is to send his name and address to L. W. Knap, M. D., 194 Hall Bldg., Detroit, Mich., requesting the free receipt as directed in his paper. It is a generous offer, and all men ought to be glad to have such an opportunity.

CERTIFICATES AWARDED.

Election of Three Republican Members to General Assembly.

MARION, Ky., Nov. 21.—The vote for representative of Crittenden and Livingston county is as follows: For Nichols, Crittenden, 1,289; Livingston, 1,179. For Blackburn, Crittenden, 1,655; Livingston, 759.

GLASGOW, Ky., Nov. 21.—Barren county election commissioners, sitting as commissioners for Nineteenth senatorial district, refused to hear evidence offered by R. D. Shannon, late Democratic candidate for senator, complaining of irregularities said to have occurred in Monroe county. Certificate was granted to F. White, Republican candidate.

OWINGSVILLE, Ky., Nov. 21.—G. W. Tipton, the Republican candidate, gets the certificate of the election for representative from Bath and Rowan. His majority is 87 in the two counties over Dr. Carter, Democrat. He is a young man of intelligence.

SMALL REWARD.

There was a reward of $25 offered for the arrest of Andy Pettit, a negro taken to Union City last night by Deputy Sheriff Allen, of that place, on a charge of murder.

The funeral of the late Congressman Evan E. Settle, of the Seventh Kentucky district, took place Sunday at Owensboro. Short addresses were made by Senator Lindsay, former Senator Blackburn, Senator Goebel and others.

German spiritualists have lost their leader by the death of Karl du Prel. He was a captain in the army until 1872, when he retired and devoted himself to literature. He wrote more than a dozen books in behalf of mysticism, and fought many savage battles with his medical opponents, who had easy work in showing that his delusions regarding spiritualistic manifestations were due chiefly to his ignorance of mental pathology.

COMPLETE REPORT OF MEETING

The council met last night in regular session, all the members being present.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.
Chairman Fowler, of the finance committee, reported miscellaneous bills which were allowed.
Mayor's orders on the city treasury amounting to several hundred dollars, were also allowed.

A bill for court costs amounting to $110.55 was allowed. They were costs in suits against the city.

Two bills from Hospital Keeper McKinney, amounting to $30.52, for unauthorized repairs at the city hospital, were presented.

Councilman Fowler moved that they be rejected.

Councilman Elliott made a statement in favor of Mr. McKinney, saying that the previous keeper, Mrs.
Birtchett, had been allowed $15 for a fence. He stated that Mr. McKinney asked only for the cost of lumber for a fence. Also that he had built two elephants, a wooden sewer, had sodded the front yard and set out several trees. That he had taken a great deal of interest in the hospital, while it was probably done mostly for his own convenience.

Dr. Robertson said Mr. McKinney had done all these things without consulting the hospital committee.
That the fence alluded to was for enclosing a garden in which to raise his vegetables.

Councilman Ezell moved that the bills be allowed.

Councilman Elliott wanted to amend by making it $25.

Mayor Lang called Mayor P. J. Tem-Ezell to the chair. He then spoke in opposition to the bill, saying that the things done by Mr. McKinney were for his convenience and economy.
He said it was not right to allow him to pay out these things for his own benefit and then go out of office and be reimbursed by the council. If the things done were needed, the hospital committee would have had them done.

Councilman Ezell said it didn't make any difference, the property Mr. McKinney had supplied, the city would now have the benefit of, as it was property he couldn't take away.
If it benefited him any way, it was worth none the less to the city. He had paid out his own money, and was entitled to be reimbursed. He said Mr. McKinney's bills for the hospital were for patients sent him by the city physician and mayor, and he had simply collected for them. He was not to blame for the bills.

Mr. Winstead offered as a substitute, that the bills be referred to the hospital committee, to be reported at the adjourned meeting the first Monday in December.

A special committee was substituted for the hospital committee, and the motion prevailed.

A bill from Dr. Robertson for $5, for professional services to a prisoner in the lockup was allowed.

A check for $2500, the amount of the compromise with Wilcox & Halloran, sub-contractors, in favor of the city, was received and placed to the street account.

The report of City Tax Collector
Kraus showing collection of $3, 462.89 since last report, was received and filed.

Chairman Ezell, of the ordinance committee, had read the ordinance fixing the salary of city assessor at $1000 per year, which was given final passage.

The ordinance requiring the city physician to dispense his own drugs to the poor was given second reading and final passage.

The ordinance reducing the compensation of the hospital steward from $4 per week to $3 per week for adults, and for $1.50 per week for children under 12, was given second reading.

Mr. Ezell spoke against it. He said if such officers were to be "let to the lowest bidder," he didn't think they should start in with one affecting the poor pauper.

The ordinance was given final passage by a vote of 8 to 4, Councilmen Ezell, Smith, Winstead and Yeiser voting no.

A report from the street committee receiving Tenth street from Court to Jackson street, on condition that Mr. E. C. Terrell, the contractor, keep it in good repair for three years, a written agreement to which was filed with it, was read.
The profile and estimates not being filed, the report could not be received, but was deferred to the adjourned meeting.

A prayer for an extension of time for the improvement of Bridge street to June 1, 1900, from Contractor Lewis Clark, was granted.
This extension is necessary on account of the difficulty in getting gravel.

Chairman Elliott, of the sewerage committee, read a petition for an extension of time for the completion of sewerage to November 18, with the exception of pumping station.
This was necessary, as the time has long since run over, and the extension never before given.

City Attorney Lightfoot explained that it was merely a matter of form. It was adopted.

A report from the sewerage committee reporting its completion at a cost of $72,018 was read, received

and filed.

Several coffee house licenses were granted.

A petition for coffee house license from Mr. A. B. Cox, at 116 North Third, was read, also a protest from property owners.

Mr. Yeiser moved to refer it to the relief committee. There was objection to this, it being claimed that it was the wrong committee.

Hon. John K. Hendrick spoke in behalf of Mr. Cox. He made a point, and read a decision to sustain it, that relief committees in such cases are not to be considered in any but sparsely settled districts where police regulations may not be far reaching and there was no city council. That the law saying that no liquor license shall be granted when a majority of the voters in the neighborhood protest, did not apply. He said he understood a majority of the petitioners in this case did not reside in the section, and that they had, furthermore, not urged any reason for not granting the license.

Councilman Fowler said he thought it a good idea to refer the matter to the license committee for a report.
He said the city already had many saloons as they have public hydrants and if they had many more the people wouldn't drink any water at all.

After considerable discussion the matter was referred to the license committee.

STREET CAR EXTENSION.

It Will Doubtless Be Some Time Before Cars Run to New Depot.

The street car company last night asked the city council to sell a franchise for operating a street car line on certain streets, the streets being those that lead from the present terminal of the Louisville line, on Tennessee street, to the new Illinois Central depot.

The franchise will have to be sold before any work can be started, and it will have to be advertised thirty days before it can be sold. Hence it will be some little time before the new depot is accessible by car. The backs now run to it regularly, and many passengers do not wait to be transferred, but take a carriage and come direct to the city, instead of going to the union depot on the transfer train.

SUCCESSOR TO SETTLE.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 21.—Gov.
Bradley today fixed December 18 of Great Britain, is dead.

CONDENSED SMILES.

His Darling Sweet—What a sweet smile there is on baby's face, John!
Her father—Yes, he's probably dreaming that he's keeping me awake.—Answers.

Mrs. Hen Peck—First we get horseless carriages and then wireless telegraphy. I wonder what next? Her husband (meekly)—Wireless matrimony, perhaps.—Life.

Lawyer—Well, have you at last decided to take my advice and pay this bill of mine? Client—Yes, lawyer.
—Very well; William, just add $10 to Mr. Smith's bill for further advice.— Boston Traveler.

"If I were postmaster-general," he said effusively, "I would put your picture on every stamp." "Oh! I prefer being kissed only by one man," she answered. And then they began on the second hundred.—Answers.

Tommy's Mother—Why is it, Tommy, that you are always fighting with Willie Simpson? I never heard of you quarreling with any of the other boys in the neighborhood. Tommy—He's the only one I kin lick.—Indianapolis State Journal.

Home Again—"Josiah," said Mrs.
Cornelissen as her husband came war-rily up the front step, "I hope you kept your head while you was in town." "I did, Mandy," was the humble reply, but I guess it was not because none of them fellows took a notion that he needed it in his business.—Washington Star.

Jingle—Today I saw a man raising a glass of beer to his lips. I called to him to stop, spoke three words to him, and instead of drinking it he dashed it to the ground, splintering the glass into a thousand pieces. Mingle—My stars! You must be a second John B. Gough for eloquence. What did you say to him? Jingle—I said, "That's non-sense beer."—New York Weekly.

"You villagers seem to be a rather deliberate lot of people," I spoke one day to a fellow who was down in the creek a spell ago. He yelled "Help, help! before he went down." The fellow last night, an "editor" of the village paper, went back to the "editorial" office and put in his paper two "help wanted" ads. charged "em up to the estate, by gum!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

Love grows by what it doesn't feed on.
Babies are just footprints of their parents.

What a man cannot find out by accident about a woman he can never find out by study.

No thin girl will ever admit that there is a family skeleton anywhere around her house.

Some of the worst gifts that Santa Claus ever put in a stocking are what women wear in them.

After a girl has been engaged three or four times she feels lonesome every night a man doesn't propose to her.

Maybe a man wouldn't want pocket-ties either if he had such convenient pockets for his clothes to put things in a woman has.

What one woman thinks about another woman's legs would make a man study anatomy for his lifetime without discovering what it was possible they could be like she says they are.

As soon as a woman finds out that the man she wants to love her is beginning to love her she acts like there was some mysterious barrier to prevent his loving her the way she wants him to love her.—New York Press.

Women who are awful careful about matching persons that they wear where nobody ever sees them are nearly reckless matchless hearts that everybody can look at.—New York Press.

Seeds Survive Great Cold.
A New York experimenter has been trying the effect of very low temperatures on seeds. Seeds of peas, oats, barley and wheat were kept for several hours at 312 degrees below zero—that is what he says—for 110 hours. After being thawed out and planted the seeds grew all right. There seems to be no further cause for alarm over freezing seeds. We seldom have it as low as 312 degrees below zero for 110 hours at a time, even in Dakota.

POLICE COURT

There Was Much Grist in the Daily Mill to Grind Today.

Mary Winters Is Fined the First Time in Twenty Years—Other Cases Tried.

Judge Sanders had several interesting cases this morning for trial.

Mary Winters, who resides on South Second street, and is alleged to have kept one of the most quiet and "respectable" houses in the city for the past twenty years, was caught last night. In her house were found John Newhouse and Ora Linn, who were fined $20 and costs this morning for immorality.

The Winters woman was fined $30 and costs for keeping a disorderly house. It is the first time she ever was arrested.

Charles Rieko and Lizzie Hedge, colored, were charged with immorality. The prosecuting witness swore that he had seen them in a compromising attitude, but they and three women, Harriet Hodge, Belle Jackson and Mary Windham, colored, swore exactly opposite to the prosecution. The case was left open until tomorrow morning and the three women and the man were sent to the lockup, with a probability of warrants for false swearing being issued against them.

A case against Jeff Carter and Rodney Perkins, colored, for a breach of the peace, was left open.

D. J. Armstrong and Joe Goureaux were charged with a breach of the peace. On motion of Prosecuting Attorney Campbell, Mr. Goureaux was fined one cent and costs and the case against the other defendant, who seems to have gotten the worst of the fight, his head being bandaged, was continued until tomorrow.

Lon Seal, Elmore Robertson and Thomas Armstrong were fined $1 and costs each for drunkenness.

Grant Peal for a breach of the peace was fined $1 and costs and a case against John Woods, for drawing a knife, was continued.

THE FEMINE OBSERVER.
The front steps are a real clew to the inmates of the house.

You can never declare friendship to be friendship until it has been put to a test.

A great many women who are very attractive when viewed from the back are so disappointing full face.

If a woman truly loves a man she will forget all the ugly things he does, but she never forgets the nice ones.

Ambition and pride are dead in the woman who apparently does not care if her heels are run over and her shoes lamed.
